WORK EXPERIENCE

Sarasota Herald-Tribune, Senior Health Projects Reporter, Sarasota, Fla.

October 2014-present

Completed months-long reporting projects, in addition to managing a daily health business and policy beat. Consistently delivered daily, enterprise, investigative and data-driven stories on deadline for a daily newspaper audience.

Major accomplishment: Producing an ongoing series explaining Florida's transition to Medicaid managed care and building an interactive website using innovative community engagement strategies, with the support of a 2015 National Health Journalism Fellowship from the University of Southern California Center for Health Journalism.

NerdWallet, Editor/Data Journalist, Telecommuting to San Francisco from Portland, Me.

January 2014-July 2014

Researched, wrote and served as the media spokesperson for NerdWallet's state-by-state cost of living reports. I also hired, edited and managed a team of freelance writers spread across the country.

Major accomplishment: Building a large audience for my NerdWallet visualizations on Tableau Public.
