

Something for those who can't get over Rhode Island

aerial VIEWS A Rhode Islander Magazine Calendar $7.95*

We've gone over and above in producing this beautiful calendar! Every month is accompanied by a color aerial photo of Rhode Island taken by Journal-Bulletin photographer Glenn Osmundson, a selection of which will appear in a special feature in the Rhode Islander in the November 21st Sunday Journal.

The calendar makes a great gift for out-of-state family and friends — and a real keepsake for you. Because, above all, it's Rhode Island!

* The calendar costs $7.95 plus $.56 tax, and $1.90 for shipping and handling. Make check for $10.41 payable to the Providence Journal-Bulletin. It is also available at the Journal-Bulletin lobby Information Desk, 75 Fountain Street, Providence, 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m.

Call (401) 277-7029 for further information.
