Two Companies, One Mission…

When the leaders in targeted display and omni-channel performance marketing team up, you know you can expect amazing results!

Two is better than one— even better is getting the benefit of working with two industry innovators, at one price! Imagine having access to superior analytics, unsurpassed technology and the know-how of an expert account manager, every step of the way.

Working with PepperJam Exchange and FetchBack means:

- Unmatched analytics and recommendation engine technology
- Transparent reporting via PJX's proprietary dashboard and FetchBack's patent-pending technology
- Unrivaled creative services to build custom, engaging and dynamic ads
- High-touch personalized service

And best of all, absolutely NO DOUBLE CHARGES— EVER!

We understand that your customers aren't shopping in silos and conversions are shared across all consumer touch-points, not just the owner of the "last click." Our reporting transparency ensures that every partner campaign is attributed fairly and accurately— that means no duplications or double charges, only optimal performance!
