

Good Afternoon Perez Hilton,

When your viewers checkout your website for the most recent updates of Reality T.V., be sure that they don't miss out on the new show Top Hooker, airing this summer on Animal Planet.

Top Hooker, has been heating up recently in the media not only for the catchy name but, for the fierce competition of top fishermen from all over the nation. Each episode features a different body of water, where competitors form teams based on who has won previously. As teams form alliances will be exposed, as well as friendships along the way. After each competition competitors travel back to their RV that transports them to the next challenge. As they return to the RVs they all eat, sleep and converse together as conflicts unfold before and after challenges.

Thus, when your readers are looking for what's going to be hot on the air this summer make sure you include Top Hooker, as a must see T.V. This show has drama, competition, and even romance all while each competitor fights to be "Top Hooker." Your readers will not be disappointed with any episode, they will sure to want to keep watching.

For more information about Top Hooker please visit animalplanet.com and for press inquires contact Erica Biroonak eb8191b@student.american.edu