

Willie Mae's

277 Waterworks Rd.
Columbus, Mississippi, 39701

Your dining table in Columbus since 1976.
Fresh from the farm breakfasts. (Yes, we make our own biscuits.
Of course.)

Hearty lunches. (Because we "heart" our customers.)
Family-style dinners. (At Willie Mae's, you're family.)

Our Story:

It started with a hungry trucker—and a dream.
On an August day in 1976, Joe Marion pulled his rig into an alley behind the old Coffee Cup Café, went in for lunch, and walked out with a plan. Six months later, he bought the place and changed the name to Willie Mae's—in honor of his beautiful wife. Today, Willie Mae's is a popular destination for truckers, and everybody else. There's often a line out the door, but it moves quick. Come on in. We'll take good care of you.

Our Food:

Everybody's talking "farm to table" and "locally sourced" like it's something new.

Here at Willie Mae's, we've been supporting local farmers for 20 years. Fresh and pure just makes sense. From our corned beef hash omelets to our award-winning chicken pepper soup to our homemade pies (from Willie Mae's own recipe book), we serve good, honest food to good, honest people, at good, honest prices.
