

GMA SmartBrief

News for the food, beverage and consumer packaged goods industry

SIGN UP - FORWARD

COMPANY WATCH

Mondelez CEO sees "encouraging snacking category growth trends"

(Justin Sullivan/Getty Images)

Mondelez International saw robust demand for its Oreo and belVita brands in developing markets and Europe during the firm's most recent quarter. "We continue to see encouraging snacking category growth trends, especially in emerging markets," said CEO Dirk Van de Put.

Reuters (5/1), The Wall Street Journal (tiered subscription model) (5/1)

Chobani providing 6 weeks of paid parental leave to all employees

(Chobani)

Chobani has instituted a policy allowing new mothers and fathers to take six weeks off at 100% pay if they give birth, adopt or foster a child. "The fact that we're able to be off, it's just unheard of," said Director of Technology Hector Yzquierdo about the company's paid parental leave, which is available to all employees.

WCNC-TV \(Charlotte, N.C.\) (5/1)

Hayes: Strong protein demand driving Tyson's growth

(Tyson Foods)

Tyson Foods CEO Tom Hayes points to a strong demand for protein as the driving force behind the firm's continued growth. "All the way back to 1960, protein has grown worldwide 3% a year, and we are a fantastic protein company with great brands like Jimmy Dean, Hillshire Farms and Ball Park," he said.

CNBC (5/1)

